Mission Statement
We, the parish family of Notre Dame, under the patronage of our Blessed Mother, proclaim our belief in the message and mission of Jesus Christ. Guided by the Holy Spirit and centered in The Eucharist and in God’s Word, we seek to build through our liturgical, educational and social ministries a welcoming community of love and mutual respect where all, from the youngest to the oldest, can grow in relationship with Jesus and one another. Recognizing our unique gifts, we challenge each other by the example of our lives to live and give voice to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

We Are a Eucharistic Community

Mass Schedule: There will be no 12:05 Mass on Memorial Day and July 4 (if it falls on a weekday) and Labor Day.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Summer can be a great time to catch up on some reading. Whether we’re at the beach, on an airplane, or just relaxing at home, it’s the perfect time to kick back with a good book. Sadly with the internet and television today, reading has fallen from popularity, but it’s a great way to not only deepen our intellectual lives, but also open our minds in new ways. So often we get caught up in our own particular concerns and interests, and we don’t realize that broader horizons can often help us think with a fresh perspective.

And this isn’t just true of non-fiction reading, but fiction as well. While I am partial to fantasy and adventure stories like The Lord of the Rings, I don’t think I would be alone in arguing that there is a great value to reading good literature, particularly good Catholic literature. In a good story, we are able to enter into a new world, meet all sorts of characters, walk through all sorts of situations, and come out transformed. We are given a glimpse of the true, the good, and the beautiful, which all reflect God, and this helps us gain insight into our own lives. Models of heroes and examples of villains are put into our minds to help us interpret reality. Of course this is only true of good literature, and that’s something that’s becoming harder and harder to find. In a world where values are so corrupted, all too often we find stories that are built on an incomplete and stunted view of the world, and where evil is deceptively glorified. Even fairy tales, once used to instill children with a healthy Christian view of the world, are used to normalize sin.

I would like to share then with all of you a short reading list of good Catholic novels that you might consider checking out this summer. Most are written by a person of faith and express themes which I hope will resonate with you as they have with me. It is not an exhaustive list, but rather a cross section of authors I have come across and whom I know many others have enjoyed.

The Lord of the Rings, The Hobbit, Leaf by Niggle, by J.R.R Tolkien
Brideshead Revisited, by Evelyn Waugh
The Power and the Glory, The Heart of the Matter, by Graham Greene
The Lord of the World, by Robert Hugh Benson
Lost in the Cosmos, by Walker Percy
Father Elijah, by Michael O’Brien
The Great Divorce, Til We Have Faces, by C.S. Lewis
A Canticle for Leibowitz, by Walter Miller
The Complete Stories, by Flannery O’Connor
The Brothers Karamazov, by Fyodor Dostoyevsky
The Man Who Was Thursday, Father Brown Stories, by G. K. Chesterton
Diary of a Country Priest, by Georges Bernanos
The Keys of the Kingdom, by A. J. Cronin

In the fall I hope to start a reading group, so please let me know if you enjoy any of these and would like to discuss. Happy reading!

Yours in Christ,

ST. THOMAS AND ST CHAVARA KURIAKOSE

I write this thank you note for all members of the Notre Dame family, for your generous support and co-operation, for the success of our Joint feast of St. Thomas & St. Chavara Kuriakose for the 4th consecutive year.

It is St. Thomas, one of the 12 apostles of Jesus, who proclaimed the good news in India and became Martyr for Jesus.

St.Chavara Kuriakose, started 2 religious congregations in India (Carmelites of Mary Immaculate for men (CMI) & Congregation of Mother Carmel for women (CMC). Our summer priest Fr. Joby and myself belong to the CMI congregation, which has more than 1500 priests. 120 CMIs are working in USA & Canada.

St. Chavara is the patron saint of families in India. His book “TESTAMENT OF A LOVING FATHER” (Chavarul) is a Magna Carta which laid a solid foundation to family life in India.

I believe the celebration of the feast of these saints helped us to increase our unity and bond of Notre Dame church as one family. I sincerely thank the volunteers who worked so hard to make our celebrations a grand success.

St. Thomas & St. Chavara pray for us.

“The most valuable possession of a family consists in fear and devotion to the Lord” (St. Chavara)

Blessings, Fr. Joe Mappilamattel

The Knights' Stand

The Officers and Members of the New Hyde Park Knights of Columbus and Columbiettes #2852

Offer this summertime prayer:

Father, Creator of all, thank You for summer!
Thank you for the warmth of the sun and the increased daylight.
Thank You for the beauty I see all around me and for the opportunity to be outside and enjoy Your creation.
Thank You for the increased time I have to be with my friends and family, and for the more casual pace of the summer season.

Draw me closer to You this summer.

Teach me how I can pray no matter where I am or what I am doing.
Warm my soul with the awareness of Your presence and light my path with Your Word and Counsel.

As I enjoy Your creation, create in me a pure heart and a hunger and a thirst for You.
