a vivacious memoir of life along the detroit river from the prize winning reporter novelist and cbc broadcaster paul vasey in this stunning work of historical fiction lr penn has concocted a breathtaking epic adventure that begins in 1890 in a small zulu village in south africa but spans three centuries and two continents it is also a personal memoir that tells the story of a family torn apart by a racist totalitarian regime the book examines a series of powerful conflicts the cultural clash between ancient ethnic traditions and encroaching western values the political battle between the underground resistance movement and the repressive military strength of a modern nation state and stirring personal conflicts as illustrated by the impossibly difficult choices that the novel s heroes are forced to make between the quest for liberation and the pursuit of love between a family s security and a people s freedom diamonds on a river of tears presents an in depth portrait of day to day life in a society altogether out of balance playfully juxtaposing its comic absurdities and tragic injustices but ultimately handing down a moral indictment that all of contemporary civilization will have to face as a rare testimony to the affected people the volume edited by cornelia kleinitz and claudia naser collects the work of ethnographers social geographers
